Academic Appeals Procedure

34. The University's regulations and procedures in relation to academic appeals are available in the Manual of Academic Regulations and Procedures (MARP). Detailed guidance for students on how to complete the academic appeal procedure can be found on the 'Student Complaints and Appeals' section of the University's Advice, Support and Knowledge \(ASK\) portal.

Changes to Programmes and Modules

35. The University may make changes to programmes or modules, but only in certain circumstances including taking account of the impact of any change on the students affected and consulting with them on major changes. Guidance on the definitions and processes associated with minor and major revisions to programmes and modules is available at <https://www.lancaster.ac.uk/academic-standards-and-quality/programme-design-and-approval/>.
36. There may be times when timetabled teaching is delayed or cancelled for reasonably unavoidable reasons (for example, staff illness or other unavailability, power loss, IT equipment failure, health & safety concerns, security concerns, severe weather conditions, unexpected maintenance/repair requirements, circumstances covered by section 43.c (Force Majeure Events) or similar). As such, the University reserves the right to reschedule or, if it proves necessary, cancel timetabled teaching; however, the University will take reasonable steps to minimise such delays or cancellations. Any changes or cancellations will normally be communicated to you by email as soon as they are known about, however, there may be occasions when teaching is cancelled on the day of delivery. Where scheduled teaching is rescheduled or cancelled, suitable alternative arrangements will ordinarily be put in place. In the event that the scheduled teaching is cancelled altogether and it has not proved possible to make arrangements for alternative provision, the content will not be included in summative assessments.
